My Road to Success

Gabay sa Magulang/Tagapag-alaga

Isinulat ang modyul na ito upang gabayan ang mag-aaral na linangin ang kaniyang aspektong personal at sosyal, akademiko, at karera. Dinisenyo ito para sa distance learning o alternatibong pamamaraan ng pagkatuto na hindi nangangailangan ng pisikal na presensya sa paaralan, bilang tugon sa direktiba na pagkansela ng face-to-face class dulot ng pandemyang Covid-19.

Malaki ang gagampanin ng mga magulang upang mapagtagumpayan ang mga gawaing nakalatag dito. Kakailanganin ng mag-aaral ang inyong patnubay at gabay sa modyul na ito. Kung kaya, hinihingi ng DepEd ang inyong suporta na makatutulong upang mapagtagumpayan ng mag-aaral ang mga hamon sa buhay, maisakatuparan ang mga inaasahang gawain at higit sa lahat, matutunan ang mga kasanayan sa buhay na kailangan nilang taglayin sa yugtong ito.

Sa modyul na ito, inaanyayahan ang mga magulang na tulungan ang mag-aaral upang buoin ang “Let’s Try This.” Sa pamamagitan ng inyong tulong, makikita niya ang kahalagahan ng mga gawaing pampaaralan at pang-komunidad na magiging bahagi ng kanyang kasanayang pang-akademiko. Mas makikilala ninyo ang kanilang interes at kakayahan na magiging kapaki-pakinabang sa kanyang pag-abot sa kanyang mga mithiin sa buhay.

Tiyakin na sasagutin niya ang bawat bahagi ng modyul nang tapat. Siguraduhing maipapasa niya ang kaniyang sagutang papel sa petsa at oras na itinakda ng kaniyang gurong-tagapayo.

Can you imagine how hard it is to climb up a coconut tree especially if it is your first time and you are the first person to climb it? It will probably amaze you to see how farmers take their easy way up to those tall trees. The first climb is the hardest because the person who climbs first marks and cuts slits on the bark of the tree that will serve as foot stop for the next person who will climb it.

This is similar to your experience as a learner. Your family, the school and the community can help you in determining the path that will lead you to success. In this module, you will learn how other people in your lives and in the community can influence you.

L.E.A.R.N.I.N.G: My Road to Success

Academic success is not merely having high grades, excelling in rote memorization, or taking up multiple courses. Academic success is a good mix of learning the lesson and at same time making sense of what you have learned. How will you know if you are learning and if you will be able to achieve academic success? Here are some important points that you can take note about L.E.A.R.N.I.N.G

List down important information; more than the required notes as part of the academic requirement, it is important that you utilize note-taking as an important skill in studying and learning. This will help you in keeping a record and in the retrieval of information that you might need in the future.

Engage in learning activities. These may not always happen in school or as initiated by your subject teachers. Learning activities may be any learning opportunity that you may experience at home, in school or in your community.

Ask relevant questions. Asking questions or inquiry is part of the learning process. Do not hesitate to ask questions in order for you to have a better understanding about something that interests you or about things that may not be clear for you. Through asking questions, it will be easier for you to make sensible judgment, and eventually make better decisions.

Read, read, read! Reading is an important skill that you will use profoundly in your daily life. Make it a habit to allot an hour or two for reading. Reading will help you gain better understanding about many things.

Nurture your interests. Be with people who support your plans and interest, and participating in relevant activities. The people around you can share information, skills and talents that will better engage you.

Initiate action. In learning something new, it is important to act on it. You should not wait for others to push you to learn new things. This is the best time to acquire new skills and to enjoy the huge information available in books, websites and other materials around you. You may ask the help from your older siblings or other family members. Asking question is an initial action toward learning.

Navigate your direction. Along with initiating action, it is important that you navigate or plan how you want to proceed. Take time to make a plan of action and look at possibilities on how you can apply what you have learned in your daily life experience.

Get things done. Finishing what you started is a way to maximize learning. At this point, you may have a lot of interests and you are eager to learn, however, it is important that when you start something, you also need to finish it. Setting a time table will be helpful.

You Can Do It

Suggested Time Allotment: 5 minutes

“Choose LEARNING”

Choose one from L, E, A, R, N, I, N and G. Write down 3 ways on how you are going to apply this in this new normal? An example has been provided to guide you.

Example: R – Read, Read, Read!

1. I will choose the book that I want to read/ recommended by my siblings/family members.
2. I will set the time in a day for reading (every 4:00 PM); when I am done with my homework.
3. I will make sure that I finish the book before the exams week.

What I have learned

Suggested Time Allotment: 5 minutes

Identify one person who has a big influence in your motivation to pursue learning? You may write a short paragraph (3-5 sentences) or draw a symbol on a clean sheet of paper on how the person made you to learn more.

Share your Thoughts & Feelings
